§ 1349. Regulatory investigatory fees. The commission may establish fees for any investigation into a violation of this article or regulation promulgated hereunder by a gaming facility licensee to be paid by the gaming facility licensee including, but not limited to, billable hours by commission staff involved in the investigation and the costs of services, equipment or other expenses that are incurred by the commission during the investigation.