§ 242. Races for horses bred in the state. The commission in granting a license to a corporation to conduct running or steeplechase races at its racetrack, if the commission deems such requirement practicable, may require such corporation to provide for at least one race during the racing season in which the entries shall be exclusively horses foaled in this state.