§ 255. Annual audit. The comptroller or his legally authorized representative is authorized to and shall from time to time but at least annually examine the accounts and books of the fund, including its receipts and disbursements.