§ 1228. Certification of change in level of assessment factors for certain exemptions. Where the commissioner is authorized or directed by law to certify a change in level of assessment for adjustment by the assessor of a maximum taxable assessed value of partially exempt real property, it shall do so in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as provided in section twelve hundred twenty-four of this title for the determination of special equalization rates for ceiling purposes.