§ 1558. Adoption of local laws. No "charter law," as such term is defined in section thirty-two of the municipal home rule law, nor local law shall be adopted which is inconsistent with the provisions of this article. No local law adopted pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be subject to a mandatory or permissive referendum.