§ 1560. Inconsistent laws inapplicable. Provisions of all general, special, local or other laws which are inconsistent with the provisions of this article shall be inapplicable to counties, cities and towns to which this article applies but if not inconsistent shall apply to such counties, cities and towns.