§ 1616. Local options not relinquished. Nothing in this article shall be construed so as to remove from the governing body of a constituent municipality the right to exercise any option which this chapter or any other law confers upon a governing body of a city or town in relation to the taxable status of real property.