§ 440. Infant homes. Real property owned by any infant home corporation actually dedicated and used by such corporation exclusively as a place for the free maintenance, care and recreation of children of the age of six years and under, shall be exempt from taxation, special ad valorem levies and special assessments.