§ 846. Review. A final determination of the commissioner relating to county equalization rates established pursuant to this title may be reviewed by the supreme court in the manner provided by article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules upon application of an affected city or town.