§ 946. Retention of tax roll. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, where a tax roll indicating the date of payment of the tax, any receipt number, and related information is maintained in a manner other than that set forth in article fifteen-C of this chapter, the tax roll shall be permanently retained as a public record.