CHAPTER 481

AN ACT in relation to railroads, constituting chapter forty-nine of the consolidated laws.

Became a law June 14, 1910, with the approval of the Governor.

Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

CHAPTER 49 OF THE CONSOLIDATED LAWS

RAILROAD LAW

Article 1. Short title (§§ 1, 2).
2. Organization, general powers and location (§§ 5-34).
3. Construction, operation and management (§§ 50-108).
4. Consolidation, lease, sale and reorganization (§§ 140-162).
5. Street surface railroads (§§ 170-210).
6. Rapid transit act of 1875 (§§ 220-244).
7. Railroad redevelopment corporations (§§ 300-313).
8. Laws repealed; when to take effect (§§ 450-451).