CHAPTER 687

AN ACT in relation to the retirement of certain public officers and employees and to old-age and survivors insurance coverage, constituting chapter fifty-one-a of the consolidated laws

Became a law April 25, 1955, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, by a majority vote, three-fifths being present

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows: