§ 144. Regulations. The director shall prescribe such regulations as may be required for the effective administration of the provisions of this article.