§ 151. Application. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, the provisions of this article shall apply to any public retirement system of the state and to any public employee pension plan administered by such system.