§ 165. Rules and regulations. The comptroller shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be required for the effective administration of the provisions of this article relating to supplemental pension payments to state retired teachers and state retired employees.