§ 166. Information to be furnished to comptroller. The comptroller shall have authority to require any department or agency of the state to furnish him with such records, information and data as he may need to carry out the provisions of this article.