§ 201. Restriction on use of retirement or pension funds. No moneys belonging to any publicly administered and operated retirement or pension system or plan shall be appropriated or used for any purpose, or for any payment, authorized or required by this article.