§ 807. Alternate means of authentication. Notwithstanding any other law, rule or regulation, each public retirement system as defined by subdivision a of section eight hundred of this article is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations to provide for alternate means of authentication in place of any requirement that a filing be duly executed and acknowledged and, consistent with the provisions of the state technology law, to provide for the electronic filing of documents.