§ 1101. Incumbents

The office of public administrator within the counties of the city of New York hereby is continued. The public administrators of the counties within the city of New York in office when this act takes effect shall continue in office until the end of their respective terms or until a vacancy occurs.