§ 1117. No separate bond or oath

The public administrators within the counties of the city of New York shall not be required to file the designation, separate bond or oath required by 708 before the issuance of letters to him.