§ 1218. Appeal; bond

The public administrator is authorized to appeal from any decree, order or judgment affecting an estate in his charge or in which he is a party. No bond on his part shall be required to stay execution of the order, decree or judgment from which an appeal is taken.