§ 212. Service of process

All processes of the court may be served and executed in any part of the state and without the state when authorized by law.