§ 806. Bond of a testamentary trustee or executor acting as trustee

Whenever a testamentary trustee is appointed by will or order of the court or an executor is appointed who is required to hold, manage or invest real or personal property for the benefit of another, he shall unless the will provides otherwise, execute and file a bond.