§ 131-l. Exclusion of agent orange benefits. A social services official shall disregard as income and resources in any program of public assistance such sums as are required to be disregarded under section two hundred thirty-five-a of the military law with respect to exposure to agent orange or phenoxy herbicides.