§ 131-t. Periodic reporting. A social services official shall require each public assistance or food stamp household which currently is receiving or received earned income to submit periodic reports relating to factors affecting eligibility, to the extent and in the manner required by department regulations.