§ 142. Exclusiveness of eligibility requirements. No person receiving federal supplemental security income payments and/or additional state payments, or family assistance shall for the same period receive any other of such forms of assistance.