§ 163. Application. The provisions of any city charter or other local or special law forbidding the granting of outdoor relief shall not apply to the granting of home relief under this chapter.