§ 29. Federal agency. The department, with the approval of the governor, may accept a designation from, and act as, the agent of the federal security agency or other duly authorized federal agency in the administration of relief and related activities, activities affecting the welfare of individuals and communities, and the disbursement or expenditure of federal funds or commodities in relation thereto within the state of New York.