§ 308. Services. An application for emergency assistance under this title shall be deemed an application for services pursuant to section two hundred fifty-three of this chapter, and services shall be provided according to the person's eligibility therefor in accordance with title seven of article five of this chapter.