§ 31. Fellowships and scholarships for local and state public welfare employees. The department, under regulations which it shall prescribe, and from moneys received or appropriated for such purpose, is authorized to grant fellowships and scholarships to local and state public welfare employees to enable them to receive additional training for the better performance of their duties.