§ 410-m. Fees and charges. The commissioner may, by regulation, establish and charge to eligible borrowers such fees and charges for inspection, regulation, supervision and audit as to the commissioner may appear just and reasonable in order to recover the departmental costs in performing these functions.