§ 472-f. Objects of corporation. The objects of this corporation shall be to receive and take charge of such children as may legally come into its custody and care, and to provide for their support, education and training.