§ 96. Use of subprofessional staff. Any inconsistent provision of law, general, special or local notwithstanding, a local social services district shall provide for the training and use of subprofessional staff, with particular emphasis on the use of public assistance recipients in accordance with state and federal requirements.