§ 59-j. Acquisition of land. The United Nations may take by gift, grant or devise, acquire by purchase, but not by condemnation, any land necessary, useful or convenient in carrying on the functions of such organization within the state and hold, transmit and dispose of the same.