§ 132. Effect of town ordinances limited. A rule, regulation or ordinance of a town shall be effective and operative only in that portion of such town outside of any incorporated village or city therein, except as otherwise specifically provided by statute.