§ 321. Foreclosure of lien upon strays by action. When such lien is foreclosed by action, all questions relating to damages, charges, sufficiency of fence, and from where and how such beasts came upon the lands of the person claiming such damages and charges shall be proven upon the trial of such action, and no certificate of fence viewers upon such questions shall then be necessary.