§ 1505. Execution to be levied against real property.

An execution out of this court may not be levied against real property. In order for an execution on a judgment of this court to be levied against real property, a transcript of such judgment must be filed with the county clerk of the county pursuant to § 1502 of this act, whereupon the judgment will be enforcible against real or personal property of the judgment-debtor as if the supreme court had rendered such judgment.
