§ 1504. Executions issued out of this court; requisites.

An execution issued out of this court may be levied only against personal property of the judgment-debtor. It shall be directed to the court's enforcement officer. It must be subscribed by either the clerk of the court in the district in which the judgment was entered, or the attorney for the judgment-creditor, and must bear, in addition to such other matter as is required by the CPLR, the date of its delivery. It may be levied in any part of the county, and for such purpose it is not necessary that the judgment have been docketed with the county clerk.