§ 1910. Costs upon appeal.

(a) Costs upon an appeal may be awarded by the appellate court in its discretion, and if awarded shall be as follows:

1. To the appellant upon reversal, not more than thirty dollars.

2. To the respondent upon affirmance, not more than twenty-five dollars.

3. To either party upon modification, not more than twenty-five dollars.

(b) Costs upon appeal from the judgment or order of the appellate court shall be as provided in the CPLR.
