§ 1504. Execution issued out of this court; requisites.

An execution issued out of this court may be levied only against personal property of the judgment-debtor. It must be subscribed by either the clerk or the attorney for the judgment-creditor and must bear, in addition to such other matter as is required by the CPLR, the date of its delivery. It may be levied in any part of the county, and for such purpose it is not necessary that the judgment have been docketed with the county clerk.
