§ 208. Counterclaims.

The Court shall have jurisdiction of any counterclaim whose subject matter would be within its jurisdiction if sued upon separately. If a counterclaim for money only in excess of $3000 is interposed, the court may entertain it to the extent of $3000 but it shall be deemed waived as to the excess above $3000.