§ 406. Summons; service by publication authorized.

If service cannot be made by another method with due diligence, the court, upon motion without notice, shall order service of a summons by publication in any action where a chattel of the person to be served has been seized in an action to recover a chattel. Practice and procedure on service by publication shall be governed by the CPLR, except insofar as this act otherwise provides.