§ 105-b. Certificate of registration. Any document or other indicia of registration, other than number plates or tags required to be affixed to such number plates or to the vehicle itself, in a form and name prescribed by the commissioner, which identifies the vehicle described thereon and indicates that such vehicle is registered pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.