§ 1610. General powers and duties. The department of transportation shall cooperate with the officials of cities and villages toward the adoption of uniform ordinances, signs, signals, signal lights and markings in the cities and villages of the state.