§ 217. Record of hearings. At any hearing held by the commissioner, or a person deputized by him to conduct a hearing to determine whether any license or registration issued pursuant to this chapter or any privilege of operating or privilege of operation should be suspended or revoked, a mechanical or electronic recording device may be used for the making of a record of the proceedings.