§ 405-a. Application of article. The provisions of the succeeding sections of this article shall take effect when this state enters into an agreement pursuant to the authority granted in section four hundred five of this article and shall remain in effect only so long as this state is a party to such an agreement.