§ 405-i. Regulatory authority. The commissioner is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations to implement the administration of any agreement entered into pursuant to the authority granted in section four hundred five of this article.