§ 415-b. Local regulation of vehicle dismantlers in cities having a population in excess of one million. The legislative body of any city having a population in excess of one million may, by local law:

1. provide for the licensing of vehicle dismantlers as defined in subdivision one of section four hundred fifteen-a of this chapter by the department of consumer affairs of such city, and further provide that no person may act as a vehicle dismantler in such city without having obtained a license from such department. The provisions of such local law shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this article or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder; and

2. adopt any other provisions relating to the operation of the business of a vehicle dismantler which are neither duplicative of, nor inconsistent with, any provision of this article or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder.
