§ 509-t. Record of violations. Each commercial motor carrier shall, at least every twelve months, require each commercial driver it employs to prepare and furnish it with a record of all violations of motor vehicle traffic laws and ordinances (other than violations involving only parking) of which such driver has been convicted or on account of which the commercial driver has forfeited bond or collateral during the preceding twelve months in accordance with rules and regulations of the commissioner of transportation.