CHAPTER 696

AN ACT in relation to financial and other benefits to be paid and provided when volunteer firemen are killed or injured in line of duty, constituting chapter sixty-four-a of the consolidated laws

Became a law April 16, 1956, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, by a majority vote, three-fifths being present

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

VOLUNTEER FIREFIGHTERS' BENEFIT LAW

Chapter Sixty-Four-A of the Consolidated Laws

ARTICLE I. Short title; purpose; definitions; miscellaneous (Secs. 1-4).

II. Coverage and benefits (Secs. 5-25).

III. Liability for benefits; insurance (Secs. 30-33).

IV. Procedure (Secs. 40-61).

V. Saving clauses; effective date (Secs. 70-72).